Cornucopia celebrates National Cancer Survivors Day

Join a celebration of life at Cornucopia Cancer Support Center's National Cancer Survivors Day event Saturday, May 31, 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Cornucopia is located at 5517 Durham Chapel Hill Blvd. in Durham.

This free, family-friendly outdoor event includes music, food, entertainment and a bargain parking lot sale featuring crafts, books, executive office furniture and medical supplies. The parking lot sale is 8 a.m.-3 p.m., and survivor festivities are 10 a.m.-2 p.m.

Attendees are invited to bring a photo of themselves or someone they care about for Cornucopia's Warrior Wall.

Details are available at www.cancersupport4u.org and on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/events/832358163459216/>, or by calling 919/401-9333.

Founded in 1995, Cornucopia pioneered nonclinical cancer care for anyone affected by cancer, including those in treatment, survivors, family members and caregivers. Its programs and services address the three F-words of cancer – fear, frustration and fatigue. Information is available at www.cancersupport4u.org.
